

Editing Services

Need an editor to look over your press release before you submit it?

Sending out a press release with spelling and grammar errors looks unprofessional, and possibly confusing to the reporter who would have covered your story if they understood what it was you were trying to say. Let the editors at Utah News Source help you send out the best press release possible.

Rates:

Basic: $19.95

Basic overlook of spelling and grammar errors, punctuation, formatting, etc.

Extra Credit: $39.95

Includes basic overlook of spelling, grammar, punctuation plus optimal media formatting to make sure your press release grabs the media's attention from the start.

The Blitz: $85/hour

This would be an overall structural re-write based on information given and is subject to an hourly fee of $85/hour. You simply supply the Who, What, When, Where, Why and How and we'll take care of the rest. By the way, we get consistent media attention on this one. It's written in a way that is easy for the media, gives it a more newsworthy feel and helps reporters understand exactly what you are trying to say. Send your info to our editors at sj@utahnewssource.com. We'll build it out so you don't have to.

Q&A:

Do we write press releases? No, we don't. You know your company best. We let you supply us with the details of your event or news info.

Does Utah News Source provide other PR services? No. We do, however, partner with a sister company that does provide more comprehensive PR services. Big Star PR will work with you on building your company's reputation and brand. Big Star will also work with you on getting your information out in other ways. This includes social media, online media and traditional media methods. We highly recommend Big Star PR for their superior service and great results.

Click through to Big Star PR to find out more

Need help on how to write a press release? Click to visit our How to write a press release page